Owl Mountain Ranch offers stunning trail rides on calm, handsome horses

As soon as Rick and Marie Seymour saw the property tucked right against the stunning Owl Mountain, they knew that's where they wanted their new home and business.

"We looked all over B.C. for a landscape like this," said Rick.

Once you pull off the highway and through the gates of Owl Mountain Ranch you'll know exactly how they must have felt when they made the decision over 10 years ago to move their family here from Langley, B.C., and begin a trail-riding business.
